INFORMATION

Date: / / 1530 HRS Lt. Gallagher gs /SHB

Sheriff's Homicide detectives are continuing their investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of a female Chinese/41, which occurred today in the 1700 block of Batson Avenue, Rowland Heights.

Walnut/Diamond Bar Station personnel responded to a Rescue call at the location. Deputies arrived and found the victim dead at the scene as a result of suspected blunt force trauma.

Detectives have learned that the victim, who was estranged from her husband, returned to the location to retrieve some personal items. During that time, she became involved in a physical altercation with him. The husband called 911 and indicated that his wife was hurt.

The suspect, the victim's husband, has been identified as Stanley Wang/65. He was arrested and booked at Walnut/Diamond Bar Station for Murder.

There is no further information available at this time.
